Our Second Opinion Offer

Smoker & Company is providing a unique offer where you can receive answers to the questions listed above! Our team of tax professionals will review your business and personal taxes that were filed in the past 3 years by your current accounting firm. They will analyze and provide to you a second opinion report of ways you may have been able to reduce your tax liability, as well as check for tax preparation accuracy!

This offer is extended to you at no cost, no obligation!

To take part in our Second Opinion Program, please call me at your earliest convenience! This offer is for new business clients only.
